CELEBRATION IS CALLED OFF

Albert Bada Goes to Cincinnati For
Fireworks and Then Skips
Out With $49.50.

BALL GAME WILL BE STAGED

Big Doings For Fourth of July Put on Blink by Promoter—Police
Are After Him.

The Fourth of July fireworks display scheduled for tomorrow night at the ball park has been called off. The reason for this is that Albert Bada, who was to stage the exhibition, has disappeared taking with him, this time $49.50. The ball game between the Elks and Knights of Pythias will be staged as was originally planned and in the evening a band concert will be given in the court house yard.

Bada went to Cincinnati yesterday to get the fireworks and therein lies the tale. Bada was given a letter to a firm there asking that they stand responsible for an amount up to $60 for fireworks. Bada was not to get the money, but the firm was to pay for the fireworks and then send the bill to the Chamber of Commerce here.

He arrived in Cincinnati yesterday morning and then it seems did considerable figuring on how he was to get hold of the money. According to the story told the Chamber of Commerce by the firm there that was to back Bada in the transaction he informed them that he could not get what he wanted at one place and it would be necessary to try another and he succeeded in talking the firm out of $49.50.

As soon as he got the money Bada made himself scarce and has not been seen since. The police there were informed of the transaction and are working on the case and expect to land him soon. The Chamber of Commerce here is not to be blamed for the deal as the instructions were that Bada should not receive any money but was to get the necessary credit through the Cincinnati firm as a favor to the merchants here. As it stands the Chamber of Commerce will have to make the money good, but the local men have not given up hopes of capturing Bada.

A telegram from the fireworks concern this morning stated that no fireworks had been ordered by Bada and even if he should put in an appearance here this evening it would be too late for the display. Under the circumstances there was nothing for the Chamber of Commerce to do but call off the celebration and cancel the vaudeville attractions that were booked yesterday.

The people here who were pushing the deal cannot understand Bada. He stood a chance of making $100 to $150 on the display here and why he should make himself liable by skipping with only $49.50 when he could have had the larger sum is a question unsettled.

CHAMBERLAIN SUCCUMBS

Most Forceful Figure in British
Politics Since Gladstone.

(By United Press.)

London, July 3.—Joseph Chamberlain, the most forceful figure in British national and international politics since Gladstone, died here at 10:15 last night. Death followed a protracted illness that barred him from public affairs for several years. It was Chamberlain's imperialistic policy that led up to the Boer war. He was 75 years old.

TWO CASES HEARD TODAY

Took One Under Advice and Returned Finding in Other.

Judge Megee heard two cases in the circuit court today. The case of William Jackson against Deborah Linville for the appointment of a guardian was taken under advisement after the evidence had been heard. The court found for the plaintiff in the quiet title suit of John K. Stewart against Anna M. Annsworth, et al. This was the last day of the present term with the exception of some business that will come before the court during the vacation. He will stay around the office for a few days and hopes to settle up the important business that is pending.

FORMER GOWDY BOY IS DROWNED IN WEST

Horton Wright Meets Untimely
Death in San Francisco Bay
June 23, Relatives Hear

HAD JUST BEEN GRADUATED

Mrs. Mary Ward of near Gowdy has received word of the death of her nephew, Horton Wright, which occurred Tuesday, June 23. He was drowned in San Francisco Bay where he had gone with a party of young men for a vacation trip, after having completed the high school course at San Jose, California. He was graduated there June 18.

The young man was the son of Dr. Henry Wright, who was formerly a well known resident of Orange township. He taught school in the township for a number of years. He has been a resident of San Jose several years.

The body was taken to Springfield, Ohio for burial beside the grave of the boy's mother. He is survived by his father and a sister.

FIXING UP HOT FOURTH DOUBTLESS

Every Reason to Believe Weather
Dictator and Old Sol Are Trying to "Put Something Over."

HAVE THEIR HEADS TOGETHER

Old Sol, General H. U. Midy and the weather dictator are getting their heads together and conspiring to give Rushville a hot Fourth in more ways than one. For a few days the dictator has been issuing that "slightly warmer" bulletin until he has "run the thing in the ground." Today the weather man did not venture an opinion on the temperature for tomorrow. He was probably afraid of a mob. He just said "generally fair."

There was a cooling breeze all morning, but about noon a haze of clouds began to cover the sky and the mercury began to mount in the tube. Indications were this afternoon that it would reach the highest point of the week. The minimum temperature for the last few nights has been rising slowly and there is every reason to believe that the W. M. has another hot wave directed this way.

Robert Perry went to Connersville this morning for a brief visit.

SIX IN RUNABOUT GO OVER GRADE

Miss Alleine Budd of This City One
of Sextette Hurt in Automobile
Accident Last Night

WAS SOUTH OF GREENSBURG

Rushville Girl Most Seriously Hurt,
But Was Expected Home Today.
Cyrus Green's Machine

An over loaded automobile, traveling at an excessive rate of speed, is believed to have been the cause of a serious automobile accident last night south of Greensburg in which Miss Alleine Budd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Budd of this city, the Misses Mary and Ruth Sefton of Greensburg, Horace Wagoner and Morris Drake of Shelbyville and Cyrus Green of Manilla were more or less injured.

The young people had been in Greensburg to witness the production of the Cabaret Minstrel given by the Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity and Psi Iota Xi sorority of this city and following the show had gone out in the machine for a short ride. The machine was owned by Cyrus Green and was a runabout.

The machine turned over a twelve-foot embankment and that the party escaped death or serious injury is considered remarkable. A sharp turn in the road that the driver, Green, did not see in time to slacken his speed sent the light machine over the embankment and crashing through a fence. All the occupants were thrown out, with the exception of Green, who stuck to the steering post. Miss Budd sustained many cuts and bruises and for a time it was thought she was badly hurt. The other two girls escaped with minor bruises. Of the two, Miss Mary Sefton was the worst hurt.

Horace Wagoner, who was riding backward on the oil tank on the rear of the machine, was thrown heavily against a pole and sustained a broken left hand. Drake and Green escaped with some bruises. Miss Budd appeared to have suffered the most and was unable to come home last night.

Following the incident, the young women were removed to the home of Max Dalmert and two physicians called. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Budd, who were in Greensburg for the show had not left yet when the accident occurred and were at the bedside of their daughter. Word from Greensburg this morning was to the effect that all were recovering and Miss Budd was expected home this afternoon.

The automobile was badly damaged. The body was not hurt, but the engine was demolished. A large pole was jammed through the radiator and the engine was practically torn to pieces. The driver of the machine is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John Green of Manilla and is well known here.

LOOK FOR SLAVERS TODAY

New York Police Want Men Mis-treating Young Widow.

(By United Press.)

New York, July 3.—Police today were searching for members of a gang of white slavers who horribly mistreated Mrs. Delia Nealy Hansom, young widow of Bridgeport, Conn., and held her prisoner for a month. She came here on a visit and lost her way. A city marshal found her locked in a house stripped of her clothing and on the verge of insanity.

BOTH MEN ARE DENIED PAROLES

Pardon Board Refuses to Recommend Clemency in Cases of William Hopkins and George Wolfe.

FORMER IS IN BAD HEALTH

Board Says it Does not Believe
Wolfe Should be Held Minimum
Term of Ten Years

William Hopkins of Carthage and George Wolfe of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, were both late yesterday denied pardons from prison by the state board of pardons which refused to recommend that Governor Ralston pardon either one.

Hopkins was sentenced to the state prison last October for a term of two to fourteen years on a charge of shooting with intent to kill Lee Somers, a neighbor of his. They quarreled over the location of a line fence. Evidence tended to show that Somers was not badly hurt, but that Hopkins was the aggressor. Hopkins pleaded bad health when he was before the pardon board Wednesday, June 24.

When an appeal to a higher court failed to get Hopkins a new trial after he had been denied one by the trial judge, an effort was made to get Governor Ralston to pardon him. It was thought this would be successful because Hopkins is past sixty years old and is in very poor health. A petition bearing the signatures of practically all of his neighbors and many Carthage people did not move the governor. Hopkins' physician also made a signed statement that Hopkins was in very poor health and that confinement in prison might cause his death.

The case of George Wolfe is readily recalled. He is a son of Joe Wolfe of this city. He deserted his wife and children here and went to Indianapolis with another woman. It will be recalled at the time of Wolfe's arrest that he was connected with two or three robberies. He declared to the police then that he had been urged by his wife to steal.

The same reason was advanced by Wolfe when he appeared before the pardon board asking for a parole Tuesday, June 23. He told the board his wife's love for fine feathers had been his downfall. He stole feathers from the hats of women and gave them to his wife. He stated to the board then that he desired to return to Rushville and live with his first wife and support his children.

According to the Indianapolis Star, Wolfe's father broke down yesterday while pleading with Governor Ralston to grant the release of his son, George Wolfe. His tear-stained face was buried in his hand when he left the executive offices. The Governor told him that he had not yet received the pardon board's recommendation, the case having been submitted to it at its recent session. However, the report was made to the Governor later in the day and it was against the granting of a parole at this time. Wolfe was sentenced in October, 1912, for breaking into the home of Walter Jenkins in Indianapolis.

"We do not think Wolfe ought to be held the minimum term of ten years," read the board's report. "What ought to be done in the future we do express any opinion now, but we recommend that this petition be refused."

The Second M. E. church will hold an all day Rally, Sunday and the public is invited to attend.

TO THRESH OUT ALL THINGS

Mexican Generals Will Not Confine
Efforts to One Fued.

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, July 3.—Representatives of General Obregon commanding the Constitutional army of the north have arrived at Torreón to participate in the Villa-Carranza mediation meeting, according to word received here today. This indicates that it is proposed to thresh out difference between all of the revolutionary leaders instead of the Villa-Carranza fued. The conferences were scheduled to begin today or tomorrow.

ELKS AND K. OF P. READY FOR FRAY

Line-ups for Two Teams Which Will do Battle Tomorrow Afternoon at 2:30 Are Announced.

NICK TOMPKINS TO UMPIRE

Great things are expected of the baseball game which will be played tomorrow afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the ball park between the K of P. and Elks teams. The line-ups have been arranged and everything is in readiness for Umpire Nick Tompkins to yell "Play ball." Fred Beale is managing the K. of P. team and Walter Easley, the Elks. Ward Hubbard will be the mascot of the Knights team. The teams will line up as follows:

K. of P.—Don Casady, ss.; George Camp, 3b; Bert Conde, 1b; Leon McDaniel, lf.; Noley Newkirk or Will Trennepohl, cf.; Wilbur Stevens, c.; Bert Oneal, p.; Earl Oneal or Jesse Wohling, 2b; Still Wilkinson or Derby Green, utility.

Elks—Carl Gunning or Scott Buell, p.; Frank Lawrence, c.; Hale Pearsey, 1b; Gunning or Buell, 2b; Will Brann, ss.; Posey Denning, 3b; Allen Blackledge, rf.; Walter Easley, cf.; Walter Capp, lf.; Harry Wyatt, utility.

THREE PERISH IN INCENDIARY FIRE

Two Are Also Fatally Burned in the
Blaze That Sweeps Apartment
House Early Today.

ONE JUMPS FROM A WINDOW

(By United Press.)

New York, July 3.—Three persons perished and two were fatally burned in an incendiary fire that swept an apartment house here early today.

Mrs. Hannah Nicokiri, age 45, and her daughter, Sarah, age 19, were burned to death as they knelt in prayer at a window. Jacob Finkelshtien died in a jump from the third story. Policemen fired revolvers to arouse sleeping people.

The city library in the court house will be closed tomorrow. It has been the custom to keep the library open on legal holidays, but here after it will always be closed.

Notice has been received at the office of the Henry county recorder that the Lewisville Cement and Tile company is now in the process of dissolution.

SHARES HONORS WITH SUFFRAGE

Temperance Question Has to Give
Way to Discussion of Giving
Ballot to Woman.

MRS. E. S. STEWART EXPONENT

J. Frank Hanly Tries John Barley-
corn For Murder Before Bar of American People-Closes Today.

Temperance shared honors with equal suffrage at last night's program of the civic assembly which closed at the Coliseum this afternoon. J. Frank Hanly was the exponent of prohibition and Mrs. Ella Seass Stewart, wife of Oliver W. Stewart who talked the night before, gave a brief digest of the woman suffrage movement.

The two addresses this afternoon were given by Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., and Dr. Ira Landrith of Nashville, Tenn., a noted Presbyterian minister and university president. Mr. Howard was here once during a "wet" and "dry" campaign and local people were already familiar with his ability as an orator.

The largest crowd of the meeting was out last night, there being approximately eight hundred people. Although the program continued until almost eleven o'clock, but few people left until it had been concluded. Mr. Stewart last night gave a more detailed description of the Flying Squadron of America, how it was preparing for its swing around the western half of the continent, beginning September 30 next. A hundred and fifty large cities will be visited. A collection was taken to help with the work.

Former Governor Hanly tried John Barleycorn at the bar on the charge of murder. He said that if the people of the whole United States were the jury, he believed the defendant would be convicted. He pointed out that J. B. kills every year five times as many men as fell at Gettysburg.

"For deaths at Gettysburg," he continued, "there was compensation. From Gettysburg arose the nation. But there is no compensation for deaths John Barleycorn causes. The dead at Gettysburg left offspring with imperial wills and strong bodies. John Barleycorn's dead leave offspring broken in body and will."

"I charge him with deliberate murder."

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back-ache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and brush it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

THAT SUNDAY RUSH
A Talk to Mrs. Housewife of Rushville.

When that visitor is here from out-of-town you hurry home from church on Sunday morning to make sure the big dinner is going to be just right. You "pitch in" yourself and when everything is ready you're too tired and hot to enjoy the meal. When the meal is over there comes the cleaning up before that afternoon drive and for the rest of the day you feel unfit for your role of entertaining hostess.

There's only one way to overcome that worry and hurry, to prevent "that tired feeling" before your day of rest is half through. Your husband will agree on that point when you suggest taking Mr. and Mrs. Out-of-Town to a Sunday dinner at the der; I charge him with twenty-five per cent. of the insanity in the land. In twenty years in Indiana alone the increase in population was twenty-two per cent, but in fifteen years the increase in the insanity was sixty-nine per cent. I charge him with thirty-five per cent of the pauperism and seventy-five per cent. of the crime. I have found this to be the case in Indiana and I have corroborated these figures in every state in the nation and every large city in the land.

"There is only one attitude that we should take toward John Barleycorn, and that is the attitude of enmity. Now at the bar of American opinion, John Barleycorn asks for mercy. Consider that, asks for mercy, John Barleycorn who has been denying mercy to the American people for a hundred years! What law have we ever enacted that he has not violated? What statute has he regarded?

"He whispers in your ear that if you have your liberty, you should never vote against him. He lies when he tells you that. He is the worst enemy the free institutions in this country ever had. He started the first rebellion in the United States during Washington's administration over in Pennsylvania and he has been behind one ever since.

"It is foolish for him to talk of personal liberty. A man may be free to do as he pleases if he lives in a forest alone, but when he lives in a community he has to respect the right of his neighbors. A man can not operate a soap factory on his front lawn because it would take away from his neighbors the enjoyment of their front lawn. No man is free to do as he pleases unless he is a hermit.

"On next November 3 you will have an opportunity to vote on the question of whether Indiana shall have a new constitution. There will be a little white ballot in the voting booth and you may stamp that without compromising yourself in the least in regard to your party affiliations. Once the voters declare themselves for a new constitution, then it is your duty to see that statesmen, not politicians, are elected to the constitutional convention to do your will."

Mrs. Stewart told of the meeting of the General Federation of Women's clubs at Chicago recently and of its declaration for woman suffrage. She also described graphically the international meeting, when practically every nation of the earth and nine states of the United States were represented.

Mrs. Stewart told of the first great demonstration by suffragettes in London in 1908 when 15,000 were in line. She said that as she witnessed the demonstration she thought how that immense body was propelled by the centuries back of them when woman had been disfranchised. She also recalled, much to the enlightenment of the Rushville audience, that with one exception, every parliamentary body in the world last year discussed woman suffrage. The exception was Turkey.

"Some folks have worried considerably," she said, "about whether mothers will continue to love their children when they get the right to vote as if men, by their legislation, had made women love their offspring. Who shall rock the cradle while mother goes to vote? has also been a much-mooted point with opponents of equal suffrage. The women of Colorado have answered that question very satisfactorily by saying that the candidates will be very willing to do it."

But Mrs. Stewart said that it had been shown in Chicago that the women did not worry about who should rock the cradle because 217,000 of them registered for the spring election. She told of the victory in Illinois where women have been given as much power with the ballot as the legislature can give without amending the constitution. She also declared the fight for woman suffrage was not a case of sex antagonism.

Mrs. Stewart pointed out that eight million women make their living outside the home and that they especially need the protection of the ballot. She declared that the disfranchised, unrepresented interest always goes to the wall.

"There is just as an effective argument for the ballot for women in the home," she continued. "Ninety-tenths of the women in the home do their own housework. I never fancied they were the leisure class, although they are some times called that. They are wage-earners, too. They earn their living, but they never collect their wages."

E. O. Excell, the noted song leader and writer, led the music at both meetings yesterday. His pianist, Mr. Roper, accompanied him here. He played a selection both afternoon and night and won hearty applause for it. Mr. Roper was here one night during the Biederwolf tabernacle meetings. Everett R. Naftzger sang a solo and was warmly applauded for it. Frederick Butler, another chorus leader of great renown, who led the music this afternoon, sang last night.

Yesterday afternoon's meeting was attended by a large crowd. J. B. Lewis of Boston, who recently gave $10,000 to the Flying Squadron of America, spoke. He had a whiskey bottle and he likened it to a bank. He asked why men would put their money in that sort of a bank where they were no locks.

Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger, state president of the W. C. T. U., outlined the work of that organization and told how it was co-operating with the other organizations to bring about state and nation-wide prohibition.

DOPE UPSET IN MANY BRANCHES

Millennium Shouters Should Have the Year of Their Lives—Upsets Have Been Frequent.

BROWNS AND CARDS EXAMPLE

Just Pick Last Year's Loser For Winner This Year and You Are Sure to Win.

(BY HAL SHERIDAN.)
(Written for United Press.)

New York, July 3.—Millennium shouters should by all rights and by virtue of performances so far this season, have the year of their lives during 1914. The year of the Big Wind had nothing on 1914. There have been more upsets to date in little old Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fourteen than in any other complete 365-day year in our memory.

Take a look at the wild and woolly habit of victory developed by the Browns and the Cards. Glimpse the brutal manner in which the heretofore unhittable shoots of Walter Johnson have been biffed on the nose at the proper moment by one-time hoodooed bat swingers. Give the double-O to the outlandish manner in which the once cuffed and abused Cincinnati have jammed and smashed and banged their way up to the top o' the heap, and then peer carefully at the unimpressive figures which are at the right of the decimal point in the Chicago American club standing, remembering that no club in either league has anywhere near the classy pitching staff that Jimmy Callahan has garnered under his wing.

Next peek at Yale's record for the year in her collisions with Harvard. After being the worm in baseball and rowing for years without number, according to New Haven's way of thinking the aforesaid worm turned, arose unwormlike to the top and lambasted the Crimson to a fare-you-well.

While noting the damage done to the erstwhile winner by the smashing swing of the pendulum on its return trip, don't forget the weilders Old J. Bull ripped our best mallet wide open with our own stuff in the jousting for the Westchester polo cup.

Once again, glance toward the British Isles and you'll see a couple of golf cups and titles that adorned United States shelves last year.

In other words, and to be brief, if you want to win all bets, about the best tip in order follows:

Pick last year's loser to win this year. Bet all you've got and pray for the Grand Old Dope to continue in the path he has followed so far this season.

In this year's turning of the collegiate worm it may be mentioned that Yale beat Harvard on field and track; Yale beat Harvard the best two out of three at baseball, and Yale beat Harvard in rowing.

There is only one branch of sport left this year in which the turning of the worm can be made complete; this is in football next fall.

While the Blue feels mighty chipper and cocky over these three victories enumerated, it can be safely said that Yale students and graduates would rather see a football victory over the Crimson than victories in everything else. Yale hopes are high for next fall, but they'll have something better than high hopes as long as Harvard has a Brickley and a Mahan playing on her football eleven.

WAS SOME EEL.

An eel weighing a little over four pounds was caught last night at the U. R. K. of P. camp on the Green farm, northeast of the city. The eel was caught on a fish line and was one of the largest taken from Flat-rock in many years. The eel was caught north of the dam.

The horse succumbs to an intensely cold temperature sooner than any other animal.

STANDS IN WITH MOTHER-IN-LAW

Huerta has Warm Friend in Senora Aguila, Who is Ninety-Eight Years Old—Not Always so

FORERLY SEWER CONTRACTOR

Little Inside History of the Family Shows Their Social Standing is Not Best in World.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, June 24. (By mail to New York)—One of the most interesting facts about Victoriano Huerta is that he has a mother-in-law, and that, contrary to the usual run of such affairs, she is thoroughly in sympathy with him. In a rather plain house at 581 Avenida Chapultepec, Senora Aguila, who is now 98 years old, holds forth for all her children and her children's husbands and wives. Scarcely a day goes by that she does not chat with at least 20 of her children or grandchildren holding family court in Mexican fashion listening to stories of troubles or joys and giving such advice as she sees fit. Not infrequently the great dictator of Mexico himself, breezes into her quiet room with a joke and a laugh. "You rascal," is his mother-in-law's name for him, and he is always sure of a welcome. There was a time, it is said, during the old days at Monterey, Mexico, when Huerta was only a sewer building contractor and money was scarce and Huerta's habits none too steady, when Senora Aguila held forth no kindly greeting for her daughter's husband. The children were coming into the Huerta home rapidly, and such debts were piling up on the Huerta household that it is only since he has been "president" that Huerta has been able to pay them off. But all that Huerta has done in the last year or so has wiped off the score with the bright-minded old lady and she takes great delight in seeing her daughter, Mary, the "first lady of the land."

As for the daughter herself, being "the first lady of the land" is not so much pleasure. Mrs. Huerta is a bright spot in the Huerta family; though she is 48 years old—being 16 years older than her eldest child, she is every inch, a mother. The society folks of Mexico say of her that she does not scintillate in society because she tries to brood. To be a mother has been her life training; to be a society woman is a thing she has never learned, because her husband is a soldier and, by the strange rule of things in Mexico, a soldier has no social standing whatever. At a brilliant social reception which "President" Huerta has always insisted shall be given monthly at Chapultepec, Mrs. Huerta is never at ease and Mexican society folks laugh in their sleeves at her habit of herding in a corner with her immediate relatives, while her husband, disregarding all the finess of the society man, flits about the rooms from group to group, coaxing men to the sideboard or punchbowl and making stinging jokes. Mexican society never took up Madero, after he became president, because, society folks said, he was a "peon's president."

On the contrary, after Huerta took the presidential power, society folk who had belonged to the aristocratic Diaz regime, found it necessary to take in Huerta and his family, because Huerta was "putting the peons where they belonged—into the army." All of this is a joke to Huerta, who sees the inside of society's idea. He knows, well enough, why he and his family have suddenly been elevated by the aristocrats of Mexico. There is nothing he loves better to do, in his role of dictator, than to threaten, tactfully, in a banquet speech, to place the men of Mexico's aristocracy in the army. The face of more than one aristocrat has blanched at Huerta's suggestion of this sort. In the exclusive Jockey Club, in the capital, where Huerta was never admitted before he seized the presidency, he delights to stand at the bar and, in sinister tones, grumble out his threats to seize all men in Mexico, "rich and poor," and place them in the field. Analyzing the Huerta family, socially, their standing is nil and, what's more, neither the dictator nor his wife care for society or its gradings.

The eldest child of the Huerta's is Senora Francisco Colon, of Monterey, wife of a civil engineer. The Colon family is now in the capital, having fled from Monterey just before the rebels seized it. "She's a woman—no more," is the way Mexican society men describe a woman who has no social training or brilliancy in conversation and I have had the Huerta girls so described to me by a Mexican club man. Under that same rating society people of the capital place Luz Huerta, who is 18 years old and who, in December was married to an old sweetheart of hers whom her father immediately made colonel in the Mexican army, though he had before been only an employee in a business house. Luz, however, under the American rating of girlhood, stood high in the capital. She is pretty, vivacious, always laughing. She liked Americans and once when she was a little girl of thirteen she acknowledge that she idealized Arnold Shanklin, the American consul-general and would marry no one but an American. Leonora Huerta is now sixteen years old, but, like the rest of the marriageable Huerta children, she has made hay while the sun shone on her remarkable father and become engaged with the hopes of having a "White House" wedding. The lucky young man to whom she is engaged is named Quiroz; he is only 22 years old and he was clerk in a government office until Leonora's favor settled upon him. Leonora told her father about her selection and one morning young Quiroz awoke to find that he had been appointed a general in the Mexican army! Only recently, when Huerta suspected that the chief of police of the capital was plotting against him, Quiroz was made head of the capital police, with some 4,000 armed policemen under him.

George Huerta, Victoriano's eldest son, can be disposed of in a few words, in much the same fashion that Mexico City's social leaders dispose of him. They say he's "impossible." In the old days folks used to pity General Huerta because, as they said "George never worked and was always living off his poor old father." The taste for cognac and for wild auto rides and for chorus girls has descended, it appears, upon George. Crude, arrogant, selfish, all the social attention he gets in the capital is given to him through fear. He, too, had a "White House" wedding about a year ago. George is about 30 years old. He has a brother, Victor, about 22, who went through a "White House" wedding on April 22, the day after the Americans landed at Vera Cruz. Victor, too, has the cognac-habit, and in Mexican slang, "loves pollo"; "pollo" meaning fast girls. Incidentally, "pollo" also means "chicken."

Two other boys of 15 and 12 make up the Huerta household.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Rushville People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first;

But if you find 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles may follow;

That dropsy or Bright's disease may be the fatal end,

You will be glad to know the following experience.

'Tis the statement of a Rushville citizen.

Samuel A. Brown, R. R. No. 10, Rushville, Ind., says: "I had a severe attack of backache and it got worse every day. Finally, the trouble got so bad that I could hardly raise my foot above the ground. When I stooped, I thought by back would break. Someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box. I was very much surprised at the prompt way in which they stopped the trouble. In a few days I was free from pain."

WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R. F. D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved.

Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, R. F. D., No. 1, Hebron, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Exactly — there are hundreds of deaths each year that can be directly or indirectly traced to the simple little bites of mosquitoes. These little pests carry and spread disease. It's not so much the sting of their bite as the dread of infection. Therefore you should take extra precaution to treat mosquito bites as being more than mere bites.

SHOW DOES BIG IN GREENSBURG

Cabaret Minstrel Staged by Local Greek Societies Last Night is Huge Success.

ARE SOME ADDED FEATURES

Little Graham Pugh "Brings Down House" With His Song and Then he Takes a Collection.

A hearty welcome awaited the Cabaret Minstrel show troupe last night in Greensburg. Members of the local chapters of the Kappa Alpha Phi and the Psi Xi received a royal reception at the hands of the Greensburg chapter of Kappas and only praise of the highest kind today was credited to the Greensburg "bunch."

To say that the minstrel show was a success, would be putting it only mildly, and the applause that greeted each number was "almost" deafening. Yes, the "almost" song was a great hit, and took as well in that city as it did here, if not better. George Hogsett and Dr. Hale Pearsey were repeatedly recalled to answer for an encore.

The stage setting was very artistic and resembled a roof garden. Eight tables comprised the cafe, which was called the Seitz cafe, after the Seitz restaurant in Greensburg. The same program, as was given in this city with only a few minor changes, was carried out.

The dance demonstrated by Denning Havens and Miss Ruth Innis was well given and received a large share of the applause. The spotlight, operated by Walter Easley of this city, was used to a good advantage in all of the dances and songs.

One of the added attractions was the "Little Picanninny," Graham Pugh, who made a big hit with the audience in his black face make-up, overalls and straw hat. Graham sang his song about the bears and as an encore sang "There's a Girl in the Heart of Maryland," and the chorus joined in the encore for that song. After Graham had sung, he took his large hat and took up a collection at all of the tables.

Another added feature was two readings given by Miss Frances Frazer. Her readings were both well given and held the attention of the audience.

The show taken as a whole could not have been given any better. The pianist, which was to have played, failed to make good, and Misses Smith, Clawson and Hogsett alternated with the piano, and everything went off alright and the change was not even noticed from the audience. Ernest Mitchel accompanied with the traps and a violinist from Greensburg the cafe orchestra.

The opera house was well filled and all expressed themselves as well pleased with the show. The Kappas and Psi Oats of this city, are very grateful for the fine time which was shown them in their city, and for the dance which was given after the performance.

WARNS AGAINST ICED DRINKS

State Board of Health Says Insane Fourths Are Not all Caused by Fireworks.

BARD GIVES HIS OPINION

Longley Hopes to See Fire Loss in State Cut in Two—Fifty Fires Last July 4.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., July 3.—"Full many a man, both young and old, Hath gone to his sarcophagus, By spilling water, icy cold, Adown his warm esophagus."

One of the bards of the state board of health recited the above bit of verse today and ventured the opinion that it was quite appropriate in view of the nearness of the Fourth of July.

"All the warnings about 'insane Fourths' shouldn't come from the state fire marshal's office," quoth he. "There will be more reckless swallowing of iced drinks tomorrow, regardless of weather conditions, than on any other day of the year. Since people have quit shooting out little Willie's eye to celebrate Independence Day, they've turned to gorging themselves at sane Fourth celebrations and loading up on iced drinks. They might, with as much good judgement swallow an assortment of Roman candles, skyrocketes and torpedoes."

So there you are. At the hour of going to press, the office of State Fire Marshal Longley is sounding out warnings against the reckless use of the sky-rocket, Roman candles and other devices that keep the volunteer fire departments on the run. The state fire marshal's office favors sane Fourth celebrations with pageants and plenty of lemonade.

The state board of health is against the deadly canon-cracker and the tetanus-dosed cartridge saps, too, but a bit fearful likewise that the sane Fourth picnics make work hardship in Indiana's collective stomach.

State Fire Marshal Longley declared today that he hopes to see the loss from Fourth of July fires tomorrow cut to the minimum. Last year's fire losses in Indiana on the Fourth, from blazes caused by fireworks alone, totalled $8,250. There were 50 fires over the state that had such an origin, while the average daily number of fires was only 35.

"By next year," said Longley, "I hope to see the model ordinance for a sane Fourth we have sent out adopted by every city of the state. One of the things I want this department to do is to educate the people of Indiana against the folly that not only caused great property damage but that has resulted in so many injuries and deaths."

Hammond ordered small boys who had been in the habit of swimming minus bathing suits near the automobile trail to Chicago to get dressed. A dozen boys were arrested at Muncie for a similar offense and the police issued a public order, warning that "September Morns" Proper place is only in an art gallery."

CELEBRATION IS CALLED OFF

Albert Bada Goes to Cincinnati For
Fireworks and Then Skips
Out With $49.50.

BALL GAME WILL BE STAGED

Big Doings For Fourth of July Put
on Blink by Promoter—Police
Are After Him.

The Fourth of July fireworks display scheduled for tomorrow night at the ball park has been called off. The reason for this is that Albert Bada, who was to stage the exhibition, has disappeared taking with him, this time $49.50. The ball game between the Elks and Knights of Pythias will be staged as was originally planned and in the evening a band concert will be given in the court house yard.

Bada went to Cincinnati yesterday to get the fireworks and therein lies the tale. Bada was given a letter to a firm there asking that they stand responsible for an amount up to $60 for fireworks. Bada was not to get the fireworks, but the firm was to pay for the fireworks and then send the bill to the Chamber of Commerce here.

He arrived in Cincinnati yesterday morning and then it seems did considerable figuring on how he was to get hold of the money. According to the story told the Chamber of Commerce by the firm there that was to back Bada in the transaction he informed them that he could not get what he wanted at one place and it would be necessary to try another and he succeeded in talking the firm out of $49.50.

As soon as he got the money Bada made himself scarce and has not been seen since. The police there were informed of the transaction and are working on the case and expect to land him soon. The Chamber of Commerce here is not to be blamed for the deal as the instructions were that Bada should not receive any money but was to get the necessary credit through the Cincinnati firm as a favor to the merchants here. As it stands the Chamber of Commerce will have to make the money good, but the local men have not given up hopes of capturing Bada.

A telegram from the fireworks concern this morning stated that no fireworks had been ordered by Bada and even if he should put in an appearance here this evening it would be too late for the display. Under the circumstances there was nothing for the Chamber of Commerce to do but call off the celebration and cancel the vaudeville attractions that were booked yesterday.

The people here who were pushing the deal cannot understand Bada. He stood a chance of making $100 to $150 on the display here and why he should make himself liable by skipping with only $49.50 when he could have had the larger sum is a question unsettled.

CHAMBERLAIN SUCCUMBS

Most Forceful Figure in British
Politics Since Gladstone.

(By United Press.)
London, July 3.—Joseph Chamberlain, the most forceful figure in British national and international politics since Gladstone, died here at 10:15 last night. Death followed a protracted illness that barred him from public affairs for several years. It was Chamberlain's imperialistic policy that led up to the Boer war. He was 75 years old.

TWO CASES HEARD TODAY

Judge Megee heard two cases in the circuit court today. The case of William Jackson against Deborah Linville for the appointment of a guardian was taken under advisement after the evidence had been heard. The court found for the plaintiff in the quiet title suit of John K. Stewart against Anna M. Annsworth, et al. This was the last day of the present term with the exception of some business that will come before the court during the vacation. He will stay around the office for a few days and hopes to settle up the important business that is pending.

HAD JUST BEEN GRADUATED

Mrs. Mary Ward of near Gowdy has received word of the death of her nephew, Horton Wright, which occurred Tuesday, June 23. He was drowned in San Francisco Bay where he had gone with a party of young men for a vacation trip, after having completed the high school course at San Jose, California. He was graduated there June 18.

The young man was the son of Dr. Henry Wright, who was formerly a well known resident of Orange township. He taught school in the township for a number of years. He has been a resident of San Jose several years.

The body was taken to Springfield, Ohio for burial beside the grave of the boy's mother. He is survived by his father and a sister.

FIXING UP HOT FOURTH DOUBTLESS

Every Reason to Believe Weather
Dictator and Old Sol Are Trying to "Put Something Over."

HAVE THEIR HEADS TOGETHER

Old Sol, General H. U. Midity and the weather dictator are getting their heads together and conspiring to give Rushville a hot Fourth in more ways than one. For a few days the dictator has been issuing that "slightly warmer" bulletin until he has "run the thing in the ground." Today the weather man did not venture an opinion on the temperature for tomorrow. He was probably afraid of a mob. He just said "generally fair."

There was a cooling breeze all morning, but about noon a haze of clouds began to cover the sky and the mercury began to mount in the tube. Indications were this afternoon that it would reach the highest point of the week. The minimum temperature for the last few nights has been rising slowly and there is every reason to believe that the W. M. has another hot wave directed this way.

Robert Perry went to Connersville this morning for a brief visit.

SIX IN RUNABOUT GO OVER GRADE

Miss Alleine Budd of This City One
of Sextette Hurt in Automobile
Accident Last Night

WAS SOUTH OF GREENSBURG

Rushville Girl Most Seriously Hurt,
But Was Expected Home Today.
Cyrus Green's Machine

An over loaded automobile, traveling at an excessive rate of speed, is believed to have been the cause of a serious automobile accident last night south of Greensburg in which Miss Alleine Budd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Budd of this city, the Misses Mary and Ruth Sefton of Greensburg, Horace Waggoner and Morris Drake of Shelbyville and Cyrus Green of Manilla were more or less injured.

The young people had been in Greensburg to witness the production of the Cabaret Minstrel given by the Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity and Psi Iota Xi sorority of this city and following the show had gone out in the machine for a short ride. The machine was owned by Cyrus Green and was a runabout.

The machine turned over a twelve-foot embankment and that the party escaped death or serious injury is considered remarkable. A sharp turn in the road that the driver, Green, did not see in time to slacken his speed sent the light machine over the embankment and crashing through a fence. All the occupants were thrown out, with the exception of Green, who stuck to the steering post. Miss Budd sustained many cuts and bruises and for a time it was thought she was badly hurt. The other two girls escaped with minor bruises. Of the two, Miss Mary Sefton was the worst hurt.

Horace Waggoner, who was riding backward on the oil tank on the rear of the machine, was thrown heavily against a pole and sustained a broken left hand. Drake and Green escaped with some bruises. Miss Budd appeared to have suffered the most and was unable to come home last night.

Following the incident, the young women were removed to the home of Max Dabbert and two physicians called. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Budd, who were in Greensburg for the show had not left yet when the accident occurred and were at the bedside of their daughter. Word from Greensburg this morning was to the effect that all were recovering and Miss Budd was expected home this afternoon.

The automobile was badly damaged. The body was not hurt, but the engine was demolished. A large pole was jammed through the radiator and the engine was practically torn to pieces. The driver of the machine is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John Green of Manilla and is well known here.

LOOK FOR SLAVERS TODAY

(By United Press.)
New York, July 3.—Police today were searching for members of a gang of white slavers who horribly mistreated Mrs. Delia Neely Hansom, young widow of Bridgeport, Conn., and held her prisoner for a month. She came here on a visit and lost her way. A city marshal found her locked in a house stripped of her clothing and on the verge of insanity.

BOTH MEN ARE DENIED PAROLES

Pardon Board Refuses to Recommend Clemency in Cases of William Hopkins and George Wolfe.

FORMER IS IN BAD HEALTH

Board Says it Does not Believe
Wolfe Should be Held Minimum
Term of Ten Years

William Hopkins of Carthage and George Wolfe of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, were both late yesterday denied pardons from prison by the state board of pardons which refused to recommend that Governor Ralston pardon either one.

Hopkins was sentenced to the state prison last October for a term of two to fourteen years on a charge of shooting with intent to kill Lee Samers, a neighbor of his. They quarreled over the location of a line fence. Evidence tended to show that Samers was not badly hurt, but that Hopkins was the aggressor. Hopkins pleaded bad health when he was before the pardon board Wednesday, June 24.

When an appeal to a higher court failed to get Hopkins a new trial after he had been denied one by the trial judge, an effort was made to get Governor Ralston to pardon him. It was thought this would be successful because Hopkins is just sixty years old and is in very poor health. A petition bearing the signatures of practically all of his neighbors and many Carthage people did not move the governor. Hopkins' physician also made a signed statement that Hopkins was in very poor health and that confinement in prison might cause his death.

The case of George Wolfe is readily recalled. He is a son of Joe Wolfe of this city. He deserted his wife and children here and went to Indianapolis with another woman. It will be recalled at the time of Wolfe's arrest that he was connected with two or three robberies. He declared to the police then that he had been urged by his wife to steal.

The same reason was advanced by Wolfe when he appeared before the pardon board asking for a parole Tuesday, June 23. He told the board his wife's love for fine feathers had been his downfall. He stole feathers from the hats of women and gave them to his wife. He stated to the board then that he desired to return to Rushville and live with his first wife and support his children.

According to the Indianapolis Star, Wolfe's father broke down yesterday while pleading with Governor Ralston to grant the release of his son, George Wolfe. His tear-stained face was buried in his hand when he left the executive offices. The Governor told him that he had not yet received the pardon board's recommendation, the case having been submitted to it at its recent session. However, the report was made to the Governor later in the day and it was against the granting of a parole at this time. Wolfe was sentenced in October, 1912, for breaking into the home of Walter Jenkins in Indianapolis.

"We do not think Wolfe ought to be held the minimum term of ten years, but he has not been there two years," read the board's report. "What ought to be done in the future we do express any opinion now, but we recommend that this petition be refused."

The Second M. E. church will hold an all day Rally, Sunday and the public is invited to attend.

TO THRESH OUT ALL THINGS

Mexican Generals Will Not Confine
Efforts to One Fued.

(By United Press.)
El Paso, Texas, July 3.—Representatives of General Obregon commanding the Constitutional army of the north have arrived at Torreon to participate in the Villa-Carranza mediation meeting, according to word received here today. This indicates that it is proposed to thresh out difference between all of the revolutionary leaders instead of the Villa-Carranza feud. The conferences were scheduled to begin today or tomorrow.

THREE PERISH IN INCENDIARY FIRE

Two Are Also Fatally Burned in the
Blaze That Sweeps Apartment
House Early Today.

ONE JUMPS FROM A WINDOW

(By United Press.)

New York, July 3.—Three persons perished and two were fatally burned in an incendiary fire that swept an apartment house here early today.

Mrs. Hannah Nicokiri, age 45, and her daughter, Sarah, age 19, were burned to death as they knelt in prayer at a window. Jacob Finkelstein died in a jump from the third story. Policemen fired revolvers to arouse sleeping people.

The city library in the court house will be closed tomorrow. It has been the custom to keep the library open on legal holidays, but here after it will always be closed.

Notice has been received at the office of the Henry county recorder that the Lewisville Cement and Tile company is now in the process of dissolution.

SHARES HONORS WITH SUFFRAGE

Temperance Question Has to Give
Way to Discussion of Giving
Ballot to Woman.

MRS. E. S. STEWART EXPONENT

J. Frank Hanly Tries John Barley-
corn For Murder Before Bar of
American People—Closes Today.

Temperance shared honors with equal suffrage at last night's program of the civic assembly which closed at the Coliseum this afternoon. J. Frank Hanly was the exponent of prohibition and Mrs. Ella Seass Stewart, wife of Oliver W. Stewart who talked the night before, gave a brief digest of the woman suffrage movement.

The two addresses this afternoon were given by Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., and Dr. Ira Landrith of Nashville, Tenn., a noted Presbyterian minister and university president. Mr. Howard was here once during a "wet" and "dry" campaign and local people were already familiar with his ability as an orator.

The largest crowd of the meeting was out last night, there being approximately eight hundred people. Although the program continued until almost eleven o'clock, but few people left until it had been concluded. Mr. Stewart last night gave a more detailed description of the Flying Squadron of America, how it was preparing for its swing around the western half of the continent, beginning September 30 next. A hundred and fifty large cities will be visited. A collection was taken to help with the work.

Former Governor Hanly tried John Barleycorn at the bar on the charge of murder. He said that if the people of the whole United States were the jury, he believed the defendant would be convicted. He pointed out that J. B. kills every year five times as many men as fell at Gettysburg.

"For deaths at Gettysburg," he continued, "there was compensation. From Gettysburg arose the nation. But there is no compensation for deaths John Barleycorn causes. The dead at Gettysburg left offspring with imperial wills and strong bodies. John Barleycorn's dead leave offspring broken in body and will."

"I charge him with deliberate murder."

FORE!

How joyous are these long July days to the heart of the golf player.

It is always fair weather on the links—the lure of the little sphere is unceasing.

Your true golfer takes as much delight in his equipment as "ye real angler" does in his tackle.

Clubs and balls are objects with a distinct character.

He wants the things that are
"just right"—"nearly so"— won't do.

And, of course, he seeks a sure guide to the stores of responsibility.

And that makes it our turn to whisper the advertising columns of the Daily Republican are ever at your service.

They are first aids to good golfing.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Backache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and brush it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

and Ernest Hall and Miss Hazel Hall spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hall.

A Talk to Mrs. Housewife of Rushville.

When that visitor is here from out-of-town you hurry home from church on Sunday morning to make sure the big dinner is going to be just right. You "pitch in" yourself and when everything is ready you're too tired and hot to enjoy the meal. When the meal is over there comes the cleaning up before that afternoon drive and for the rest of the day you feel miffed for your role of entertaining hostess.

There's only one way to overcome that worry and hurry, to prevent "that tired feeling" before your day of rest is half through. Your husband will agree on that point when you suggest taking Mr. and Mrs. Out-of-Town to a Sunday dinner at the der; I charge him with twenty-five per cent. of the insanity in the land. In twenty years in Indiana alone the increase in population was twenty-two per cent, but in fifteen years the increase in the insanity was sixty-nine per cent. I charge him with thirty-five per cent of the pauperism and seventy-five per cent. of the crime. I have found this to be the case in Indiana and I have corroborated these figures in every state in the nation and every large city in the land.

"There is only one attitude that we should take toward John Barleycorn, and that is the attitude of enmity. Now at the bar of American opinion, John Barleycorn asks for mercy. Consider that, asks for mercy, John Barleycorn who has been denying mercy to the American people for a hundred years! What law have we ever enacted that he has not violated? What statute has he regarded?

"He whispers in your ear that if you have your liberty, you should never vote against him. He lies when he tells you that. He is the worst enemy the free institutions in this country ever had. He started the first rebellion in the United States during Washington's administration over in Pennsylvania and he has been behind one ever since.

"It is foolish for him to talk of personal liberty. A man may be free to do as he pleases if he lives in a forest alone, but when he lives in a community he has to respect the right of his neighbors. A man can not operate a soap factory on his front lawn because it would take away from his neighbors the enjoyment of their front lawn. No man is free to do as he pleases unless he is a hermit.

"On next November 3 you will have an opportunity to vote on the question of whether Indiana shall have a new constitution. There will be a little white ballot in the voting booth and you may stamp that without compromising yourself in the least in regard to your party affiliations. Once the voters declare themselves for a new constitution, then it is your duty to see that statesmen, not politicians, are elected to the constitutional convention to do your will."

Mrs. Stewart told of the meeting of the General Federation of Women's clubs at Chicago recently and of its declaration for woman suffrage. She also described graphically the international meeting, when practically every nation of the earth and nine states of the United States were represented.

Mrs. Stewart told of the first great demonstration by suffragettes in London in 1908 when 15,000 were in line. She said that as she witnessed the demonstration she thought how that immense body was propelled by the centuries back of them when woman had been disfranchised. She also recalled, much to the enlightenment of the Rushville audience, that with one exception, every parliamentary body in the world last year discussed woman suffrage. The exception was Turkey.

"Some folks have worried considerably," she said, "about whether mothers will continue to love their children when they get the right to vote as if men, by their legislation, had made women love their offspring. Who shall rock the cradle while mother goes to vote? has also been a much-mooted point with opponents of equal suffrage. The women of Colorado have answered that question very satisfactorily by saying that the candidates will be very willing to do it."

But Mrs. Stewart said that it had been shown in Chicago that the women did not worry about who should rock the cradle because 217,000 of them registered for the spring election. She told of the victory in Illinois where women have been given as much power with the ballot as the legislature can give without amending the constitution. She also declared the fight for woman suffrage was not a case of sex antagonism.

Mrs. Stewart pointed out that eight million women make their living outside the home and that they especially need the protection of the ballot. She declared that the disfranchised, unrepresented interest always goes to the wall.

"There is just as an effective argument for the ballot for women in the home," she continued. "Ninetenths of the women in the home do their own housework. I never fancied they were the leisure class, although they are some times called that. They are wage-earners, too. They earn their living, but they never collect their wages."

E. O. Excell, the noted song leader and writer, led the music at both meetings yesterday. His pianist, Mr. Roper, accompanied him here. He played a selection both afternoon and night and won hearty applause for it. Mr. Roper was here one night during the Biederwolf tabernacle meetings. Everett R. Naftzger sang a solo and was warmly applauded for it. Frederick Butler, another chorus leader of great renown, who led the music this afternoon, sang last night.

Yesterday afternoon's meeting was attended by a large crowd. J. B. Lewis of Boston, who recently gave $10,000 to the Flying Squadron of America, spoke. He had a whiskey bottle and he likened it to a bank. He asked why men would put their money in that sort of a bank where they were no locks.

Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger, state president of the W. C. T. U., outlined the work of that organization and told how it was co-operating with the other organizations to bring about state and nation-wide prohibition.

—Preaching services will be held at Sexton every second and fourth Sunday of each month. Services are held at 10:30 in the morning and at 7:30 in the evening.

—There will be preaching every Sunday at the Glenwood M. E. church. Morning service at 10:30 o'clock, evening services at 7 o'clock and Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock.

—The Rev. Oldham of Butler College has again accepted the charge at the Fairview Christian church. The Rev. Mr. Oldham was at this church last year. He will preach at Fairview the second and fourth Sundays in each month.

—Owing to the fact that when the St. Paul parsonage was burned all the church records were burned it becomes necessary to make new records for each church on the charge. The pastor, Rev. E. T. Lewis, earnestly requests that every member of the Gowdy church be present on Sunday afternoon July 5, at the regular church service. Those who can not come but who desire to have their names entered on the new membership record are asked to write to Pastor Lewis at St. Paul.

—"The Triumphant Entry" will be the subject of the sermon at the combined services at the United Presbyterian Sunday morning at ten o'clock. No evening service.

—The Rev. John B. Meacham of the First Presbyterian church will preach at the first of the summer union meetings at the Coliseum Sunday night. There will be services in no other churches.

—"Willingness" will be the subject of the sermon at the First Baptist church Sunday morning at 10:30; Sunday school at 9:30. No evening service.

—Rev. E. E. Kuhn will fill his regular appointment at Big Flatrock Sunday, July 5, morning and evening; Sunday school at 9:30. Everyone is cordially invited to attend all of these services.

DOPE UPSET IN MANY BRANCHES

Millennium Shouters Should Have the Year of Their Lives—Upsets Have Been Frequent.

BROWNS AND CARDS EXAMPLE

Just Pick Last Year's Loser For Winner This Year and You Are Sure to Win.

(BY HAL SHERIDAN.)
(Written for United Press.)

New York, July 3.—Millennium shouters should by all rights and by virtue of performances so far this season, have the year of their lives during 1914. The year of the Big Wind had nothing on 1914. There have been more upsets to date in little old Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fourteen than in any other complete 365-day year in our memory.

Take a look at the wild and woolly habit of victory developed by the Browns and the Cards. Glimpse the brutal manner in which the heretofore unblatant shouts of Walter Johnson have been biffed on the nose at the proper moment by one-time hoodooed bat swingers. Give the double-O to the outlandish manner in which the once cuffed and abused Cincinnati have jammed and smashed and banged their way up to the top of the heap, and then peer carefully at the unimpressive figures which are at the right of the decimal point in the Chicago American club standing, remembering that no club in either league has anywhere near the classy pitching staff that Jimmy Callahan has garnered under his wing.

Next peek at Yale's record for the year in her collisions with Harvard. After being the worm in baseball and rowing for years without number, according to New Haven's way of thinking the aforesaid worm turned, arose unwormlike to the top and lambasted the Crimson to a face-you-well.

While noting the damage done to the erstwhile winner by the smashing swing of the pendulum on its return trip, don't forget the weilders Old J. Bull ripped our best mallet wide open with our own stuff in the jousting for the Westchester polo cup.

Once again, glance toward the British Isles and you'll see a couple of golf cups and titles that adorned United States shelves last year.

In other words, and to be brief, if you want to win all bets, about the best tip in order follows:

Pick last year's loser to win this year. Bet all you've got and pray for the Grand Old Dope to continue in the path he has followed so far this season.

In this year's turning of the collegiate worm it may be mentioned that Yale beat Harvard on field and track; Yale beat Harvard the best two out of three at baseball, and Yale beat Harvard in rowing.

There is only one branch of sport left this year in which the turning of the worm can be made complete; this is in football next fall.

While the Blue feels mighty clipper and cocky over these three victories enumerated, it can be safely said that Yale students and graduates would rather see a football victory over the Crimson than victories in everything else. Yale hopes are high for next fall, but they'll have something better than high hopes as long as Harvard has a Brickley and a Mahan playing on her football eleven.

WAS SOME EEL.

An eel weighing a little over four pounds was caught last night at the U. R. K. of P. camp on the Green farm, northeast of the city. The eel was caught on a fish line and was one of the largest taken from Flat-rock in many years. The eel was caught north of the dam.

The horse succumbs to an intensely cold temperature sooner than any other animal.

STANDS IN WITH MOTHER-IN-LAW

Huerta has Warm Friend in Senora Aguila, Who is Ninety-Eight Years Old—Not Always so

FORMERLY SEWER CONTRACTOR

Little Inside History of the Family Shows Their Social Standing is Not Best in World.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, June 24. (By mail to New York)—One of the most interesting facts about Victoriano Huerta is that he has a mother-in-law, and that, contrary to the usual run of such affairs, she is thoroughly in sympathy with him. In a rather plain house at 581 Avenida Chapultepec, Senora Aguila, who is now 98 years old, holds forth for all her children and her children's husbands and wives. Scarcely a day goes by that she does not chat with at least 20 of her children or grandchildren holding family court in Mexican fashion listening to stories of troubles or joys and giving such advice as she sees fit. Not infrequently the great dictator of Mexico himself, breezes into her quiet room with a joke and a laugh. "You rascal," is his mother-in-law's name for him, and he is always sure of a welcome. There was a time, it is said, during the old days at Monterey, Mexico, when Huerta was only a sewer building contractor and money was scarce and Huerta's habits none too steady, when Senora Aguila held forth no kindly greeting for her daughter's husband. The children were coming into the Huerta home rapidly, and such debts were piling up on the Huerta household that it is only since he has been "president" that Huerta has been able to pay them off. But all that Huerta has done in the last year or so has wiped off the score with the bright-minded old lady and she takes great delight in seeing her daughter, Mary, the "first lady of the land."

As for the daughter herself, being "the first lady of the land" is not so much pleasure. Mrs. Huerta is a bright spot in the Huerta family; though she is 48 years old—being 16 years older than her eldest child, she is every inch a mother. The society folks of Mexico say of her that she does not scintillate in society because she tries to brood. To be a mother has been her life training; to be a society woman is a thing she has never learned, because her husband is a soldier and, by the strange rule of things in Mexico, a soldier has no social standing whatever. At a brilliant social reception which "President" Huerta has always insisted shall be given monthly at Chapultepec, Mrs. Huerta is never at ease and Mexican society folks laugh in their sleeves at her habit of herding in a corner with her immediate relatives, while her husband, disregarding all the finesse of the society man, flits about the rooms from group to group, coaxing men to the sideboard or punchbowl and making stinging jokes. Mexican society never took up Madero, after he became president, because, society folks said, he was a "peon's president."

On the contrary, after Huerta took the presidential power, society folk who had belonged to the aristocratic Diaz regime, found it necessary to take in Huerta and his family, because Huerta was "putting the peons where they belonged—into the army." All of this is a joke to Huerta, who sees the inside of society's idea. He knows, well enough, why he and his family have suddenly been elevated by the aristocrats of Mexico. There is nothing he loves better to do, in his role of dictator, than to threaten, tactfully, in a banquet speech, to place the men of Mexico's aristocracy in the army. The face of more than one aristocrat has blanched at Huerta's suggestion of this sort. In the exclusive Jockey Club, in the capital, where Huerta was never admitted before he seized the presidency, he delights to stand at the bar and, in sinister tones, grumble out his threats to seize all men in Mexico, "rich and poor," and place them in the field. Analyzing the Huerta family, socially, their standing is nil and, what's more, neither the dictator nor his wife care for society or its gradings.

The eldest child of the Huerta's is Senora Francisco Colon, of Monterey, wife of a civil engineer. The Colon family is now in the capital, having fled from Monterey just before the rebels seized it. "She's a woman—no more," is the way Mexican society men describe a woman who has no social training or brilliancy in conversation and I have had the Huerta girls so described to me by a Mexican club man. Under that same rating society people of the capital place Luz Huerta, who is 18 years old and who, in December was married to an old sweetheart of hers whom her father immediately made colonel in the Mexican army, though he had before been only an employee in a business house. Luz, however, under the American rating of girlhood, stood high in the capital. She is pretty, vivacious, always laughing. She liked Americans and once when she was a little girl of thirteen she acknowledged that she idealized Arnold Shauklin, the American consul-general and would marry no one but an American. Leonora Huerta is now sixteen years old, but, like the rest of the marriageable Huerta children, she has made hay while the sun shone on her remarkable father and become engaged with the hopes of having a "White House" wedding. The lucky young man to whom she is engaged is named Quiroz; he is only 22 years old and he was clerk in a government office until Leonora's favor settled upon him. Leonora told her father about her selection and one morning young Quiroz awoke to find that he had been appointed a general in the Mexican army! Only recently, when Huerta suspected that the chief of police of the capital was plotting against him, Quiroz was made head of the capital police, with some 4,000 armed policemen under him.

George Huerta, Victoriano's eldest son, can be disposed of in a few words, in much the same fashion that Mexico City's social leaders dispose of him. They say he's "impossible." In the old days folks used to pity General Huerta because, as they said "George never worked and was always living off his poor old father." The taste for cognac and for wild auto rides and for chorus girls has descended, it appears, upon George. Crude, arrogant, selfish, all the social attention he gets in the capital is given to him through fear. He, too, had a "White House" wedding about a year ago. George is about 30 years old. He has a brother, Victor, about 22, who went through a "White House" wedding on April 22, the day after the Americans landed at Vera Cruz. Victor, too, has the cognac-habit, and in Mexican slang, "loves pollo"; "pollo" meaning fast girls. Incidentally, "pollo" also means "chicken."

Two other boys of 15 and 12 make up the Huerta household.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Rushville People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first;

But if you find 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles may follow;

That dropsy or Bright's disease may be the fatal end,

You will be glad to know the following experience.

'Tis the statement of a Rushville citizen.

Sammuel A. Brown, R. R. No. 10, Rushville, Ind., says: "I had a severe attack of backache and it got worse every day. Finally, the trouble got so bad that I could hardly raise my foot above the ground. When I stooped, I thought by back would break. Someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box. I was very much surprised at the prompt way in which they stopped the trouble. In a few days I was free from pain."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Brown had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement.)

WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved.

Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, R. F. D., No. 1, Hebron, Maine.

KILLED BY A MOSQUITO

Exactly — there are hundreds of deaths each year that can be directly or indirectly traced to the simple little bites of mosquitoes. These little pests carry and spread disease. It's not so much the sting of their bite as the dread of infection. Therefore you should take extra precaution to treat mosquito bites as being more than mere bites.

Penslar Skeeter Dig

not only allays the itch and sting, but sterilizes the part affected because of its antiseptic and healing properties. Used as a protection from the effect of mosquito bites, this lotion becomes doubly valuable. Put a bottle of it in your grip. --

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

SHOW DOES BIG IN GREENSBURG

Cabaret Minstrel Staged by Local Greek Societies Last Night is Huge Success.

ARE SOME ADDED FEATURES

Little Graham Pugh "Brings Down House" With His Song and Then he Takes a Collection.

A hearty welcome awaited the Cabaret Minstrel show troupe last night in Greensburg. Members of the local chapters of the Kappa Alpha Phi and the Psi Xi received a royal reception at the hands of the Greensburg chapter of Kappas and only praise of the highest kind today was credited to the Greensburg "bunch."

To say that the minstrel show was a success, would be putting it only mildly, and the applause that greeted each number was "almost" deafening. Yes, the "almost" song was a great hit, and took as well in that city as it did here, if not better. George Hogsett and Dr. Hale Pearsey were repeatedly recalled to answer for an encore.

The stage setting was very artistic and resembled a roof garden. Eight tables comprised the cafe, which was called the Seitz cafe, after the Seitz restaurant in Greensburg. The same program, as was given in this city with only a few minor changes, was carried out.

The dance demonstrated by Denning Havens and Miss Ruth Innis was well given and received a large share of the applause. The spotlight, operated by Walter Easley of this city, was used to a good advantage in all of the dances and songs.

One of the added attractions was the "Little Piccanniny," Graham Pugh, who made a big hit with the audience in his black face make-up, overalls and straw hat. Graham sang his song about the bears and as an encore sang "There's a Girl in the Heart of Maryland," and the chorus joined in the encore for that song. After Graham had sung, he took his large hat and took up a collection at all of the tables.

Another added feature was two readings given by Miss Frances Frazee. Her readings were both well given and held the attention of the audience.

The show taken as a whole could not have been given any better. The pianist, which was to have played, failed to make good, and Misses Smith, Clawson and Hogsett alternated with the piano, and everything went off a-bright and the change was not even noticed from the audience. Ernest Mitchell accompanied with the traps and a violinist from Greensburg the cafe orchestra.

The opera house was well filled and all expressed themselves as well pleased with the show. The Kappas and Psi Oats of this city, are very grateful for the fine time which was shown them in their city, and for the dance which was given after the performance.

WARNS AGAINST ICED DRINKS

State Board of Health Says Insane Fourth's Are Not all Caused by Fireworks.

BARD GIVES HIS OPINION

Longley Hopes to See Fire Loss in State Cut in Two—Fifty Fires Last July 4.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., July 3.—"Full many a man, both young and old, Hath gone to his sarcophagus, By spilling water, icy cold, Adown his warm esophagus." One of the bards of the state board of health recited the above bit of verse today and ventured the opinion that it was quite appropriate in view of the nearness of the Fourth of July.

"All the warnings about 'insane Fourth's' shouldn't come from the state fire marshal's office," quoth he. "There will be more reckless swallowing of iced drinks tomorrow, regardless of weather conditions, than on any other day of the year. Since people have quit shooting out little Willie's eye to celebrate Independence Day, they've turned to gorging themselves at same Fourth celebrations and loading up on iced drinks. They might, with as much good judgement swallow an assortment of Roman candles, skyrocket and torpedoes."

So there you are. At the hour of going to press, the office of State Fire Marshal Longley is sounding out warnings against the reckless use of the sky-rocket, Roman candles and other devices that keep the volunteer fire departments on the run. The state fire marshal's office favors same Fourth celebrations with pageants and plenty of lemonade.

The state board of health is against the deadly canon-cracker and the tetanus-dosed cartridge saps, too, but a bit fearful likewise that the same Fourth picnics make work hardship in Indiana's collective stomach.

State Fire Marshal Longley declared today that he hopes to see the loss from Fourth of July fires tomorrow cut to the minimum. Last year's fire losses in Indiana on the Fourth, from blazes caused by fireworks alone, totalled $8,250. There were 50 fires over the state that had such an origin, while the average daily number of fires was only 35.

"By next year," said Longley, "I hope to see the model ordinance for a sane Fourth we have sent out adopted by every city of the state. One of the things I want this department to do is to educate the people of Indiana against the folly that not only caused great property damage but that has resulted in so many injuries and deaths."

MUST HAVE SUIT.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., July 2.—Indiana has an international reputation as a literary bawliwick, but this is no state for lovers of the unclothed in art. Two Hoosier cities in the past few days have indicated as much by taking steps to repress Septer her Morns that insist on bathing a la Adam. Hammond ordered small boys who had been in the habit of swimming minus bathing suits near the automobile trail to Chicago to get dressed. A dozen boys were arrested at Muncie for a similar offense and the police issued a public order, warning that "September Morns" proper place is only in an art gallery."

BURNS $100,000 MANSION.

AMERICA SCORES VICTORY

Both Crews Win in Semi-Finals in Henley Regatta.

(By United Press.) Henley-on-Thames, Eng., July 2.—America scored a double victory here today in the great Henley regatta when the Harvard University crew and the Union Boat club crew of Boston won in the semifinals, defeating the Winnipeg and Mayence crews respectively. The two American crews will contest tomorrow for the grand cup, all other crews having been eliminated.

WAGON CRASHED INTO TREE

Thrilling Runaway This Morning in North Main Street.

A team of horses owned by John Hiner and hitched to a heavy wagon ran away in North Main street this morning when the single tree fell down striking one of the horses. The team ran only about a half square and attempted to turn in the alley by the John Powers residence and in doing so ran the wagon into a large tree. The wagon was slightly damaged. When the horses first started the reins were jerked out of the driver's hands and the horses for the time being were free.

FALSE STILL ALARM.

The fire department made a fast run through the business district about 3 o'clock this afternoon, when a still alarm came over the telephone that Davis' Sales Barn was on fire. The department failed to find any fire or anyone who phoned the alarm in.
